Testimony was offered against him by the wife of the druggist at Winkelman, who had taken the money. No explanation of the transaction was offered by the defendant.

A COMPLICATED CASE—It is up to Justice DeSouza to find the truth in the middle somewhere between the stories of a shooting told by a young woman, Zelma Butler, living southwest of the city, and the members of the family of Manuel Gonzales. The Gonzales women complained that while they were swimming in the canal near by, the girl shot at them. The girl, who was brought in, said that she had fired in self defense and that the Gonzales people had formed the habit of shooting at her when they caught her out. She said that in this case she called at the Gonzales home to remonstrate with Mrs. Gonzales and her daughters against stories that they were circulating about her.

GRAHAM'S TRIP—D. G. Graham, who maintains his Buick Six for hire at Elvey and Huletts Drug Store, has just returned from a splendid trip up and down the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Graham visited San Bernardino and then down the coast to San Diego, they motored to all the beach cities, Los Angeles, Long Beach, Santa Monica, Venice, taking the coast route to San Francisco, motoring to all the parks of that beautiful city; they returned. The Grahams took the inland route on returning to Los Angeles via the way of Bakersfield and Ventura, the coast route was reported in bad condition.
